

Alexandre Almeida

Departamento de Matemática, Universidade de Aveiro, Portugal

On Besov-Morrey spaces with variable exponents

Variable exponent function spaces are widely studied nowadays. In this talk we present a new framework to deal with Besov-Morrey spaces with variable smoothness and integrability. Some key properties will be discussed including a comparison with already known spaces. This is based on joint work with António Caetano (Aveiro).