

Pierre Gilles Lemarié-Rieusset

Université d'Évry, France

A new approach to parabolic Morrey spaces for PDE's

While parabolic Morrey spaces have been known for a long time as being of interest for studying non-linear parabolic equations, we may learn from the study of those spaces to get a better insight in those equations. I shall insist on Hedberg's inequality and parabolic Riesz potentials as a tool to get easily some basic estimates.